N. A. HORTON, Chairman.

General Interest.

Your Committee on General Interests respectfully submits the following:

We are pleased to note the increase in our contributions to Home and Foreign Missions. We are sure that the solid business basis of our Boards and the wise and judicious appropriations of our funds, have made such an encouraging showing in promising new Churches at home and abroad that our people will continue to increase their contributions.

We recommend that our pastors faithfully present to their people the interests of Home and Foreign Missions, Church Extensions and Ministerial Education.

We recommend the observance of Easter and Children's day services.

We urge the necessity of our pastors pressing upon their people the importance of taking our church papers.

We rejoice to know that our new church Hymnal is about ready for distribution, and we recommend that they be used in every Methodist Protestant Church.

E. R. AYCOCK, Chairman.

Orders and Itinerary.

The Committee on Orders and Itinerary submit the following report;

Bro. J. R. Anderson came before the Committee for Ordination, with his recommendation from the quarterly conference of Mitchell Chapel. After examining Bro. Anderson according to all the requirements of the discipline, we cannot recommend him for Ordination, but we do recommend that he pursue the course of study prescribed in the discipline.

J. L. McGARITY, Secretary.

W. J. CAUSEY, Chairman.

J. M. Langford and T. J. Lyle, not heard from. S. J. Robinson transferred to the Alabama Conference. A. B. Phillips is beyond the jurisdiction of this Conference, hence, we recommend that his name be dropped from the roll.

R. S. McGARITY, Chairman.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your Board has realized with great sorrow the lack of interest in this the most important of all enterprises. This lack of interest, we believe, is due to a failure on the part of our pastors to emphasize before their respective congregations the great importance and sore need of such a fund. It is a fact, manifest to all observing minds, that the growth of the Georgia Conference must come from the liberality, and the wisely directed energy and expenditure of funds raised within our own borders.

We must enter our towns and cities, or we must constantly lose all that part of our congregations that move from us to these centers. This means a constant loss of membership from the ranks of young business men, the very class we can least afford to lose.

An assessment of 80 cents per member throughout the entire Conference would give us such a fund as would enable us, with the local help of such places, to build one or more churches annually; and also be the means of arousing an interest; that in consequence of apparent growth, would constantly lead to greater liberality towards this work of our church.

We therefore recommend that an assessment of 30 cents per member be laid on our entire district. And that the pastors be required to present this interest faithfully to their congregation.

Adopted by the Board.

J. McLELLAN, Chairman.

J. A. McGARITY, Secretary.

CREDENTIALS.

The Committee on Credentials report the following delegates as duly elected and entitled to membership in this Conference. (Sec. Mem. or Exp. Res.)

J. O. A. RADFORD, Chairman,

FINANCE.

We, your committee, recommend that each pastor collect the sum of ten cents for Foreign, and fourteen cents for Home Missions from each member.

We recommend the collection of 30 cents per member for Church extension and five cents per member for Ministerial Education.

We recommend that this Conference require the Stewards, as soon as elected to provide themselves with suitable books in which to enter the names of the entire membership of their respective churches. And that these stewards be required to hold a meeting with the church register before them, dividing the list amongst themselves. It shall then be the duty of each steward to see or correspond with each member whose name appears on his list and have each one place opposite his name the amount he is willing to pay to the support of the gospel.

We further recommend, that the Secretary, at the close of the Conference year call the roll of the membership of the Church and that the Stewards be required to give amount paid by each member during the year for purpose above indicated.

We further recommend, that collections for Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Church Extension, Ministerial Education and Conference Collections be taken as early in the year as practicable, either in cash or by subscription.

We recommend the following forms of reports. Also blank form for pastor's monthly report to president.
